

IRS Small Business Tax Seminar

Business owners are responsible for knowing what taxes apply to their enterprise and making sure returns are filed correctly and on time. You will learn the basics of business taxes, including tax forms for different business entities, business use of home and car, and record keeping. This seminar provides the critical information you need in an easily understood format. The cost of this workshop is $20.00 and is presented by the Navarro College Small Business Development Center.
